Reading Section*Bullet Trains

If you visit Japan, you might choose to travel by Shinkansen train. These high speed trains connect the major cities of Japan. They are nicknamed “bullet trains” because they go very fast and have pointy noses like a bullet. They are very punctual, often leaving on time. They are also comfortable. Most importantly, bullet trains are very safe. In their 35-year history, there have been only a few accidents and no deaths. The only disadvantage of “them” is that they are expensive. A ticket to travel to another city will be almost the same with an airline ticket. However, if you fly, you will land at an airport far away from the city. Train stations are usually right in the middle of a city.
